

The Appeals Procedure

If you are unhappy with your assessor, or do not agree with their assessment decision, you have the right of appeal. It is always best to try and sort things out with your assessor first, but in the unlikely event that you have a problem that you have not been able to solve then you should contact your internal verifier at Paignton Sec (contact details should be provided). If you still feel that your problem has not been addressed then you should write to the external verifier who is employed by the awarding body. Paignton Sec will supply you with contact details.

All candidates should be made aware of the Appeals Procedure on Induction and also regularly through-out the assessment process.
